(Noun) Initiation: Rite of Passage. A Test. An act that sets in motion some course of events.

<>◇<>

Have you ever considered that your Life is a perpetual Initiation?

From the moment of our conception, until the final Initiation of adulthood, our Death, we are always tested. Throughout our lives, we are stepping through a gateway of some type of Rite of Passage. This is the Way of Life—Evolution by Revolution. Growth in contrast with Complacency. Movement, the polarity of Retreat.

As you can tell, at this point in time, all of Humanity is going through an Initiation. Some are handling it well, while others...not so much.

Though some world leaders will do their damndest to return to how things once were, that simply isn't the Way of Things.

Life evolves, and the world revolves. I call this Evolution by Revolution.

And so the world moves forward.

This leads to some Food for Thought...

NOTE: At the time of this writing, an horrible incident has taken place in the United States involving race, discrimination and human rights. The man who died is George Floyd. Consider this too as you look at these questions, for we are all related.

<><><>

 Considering the current situation, how are you doing with your Rites of Passage? What does the future world look like to you? Who will you BE in the future that you envision?

 What have you learned so far in your Initiation?

 How have you changed while going through your test?

 Taking 100% Full Responsibility for your life, how will you carry this forward?

 Before the pandemic, did you think more about yourself or others? How about now?

 What lesson have you learned in your life that you can share with someone who is “coming up” behind you?

These are not one shot questions. Let them evolve just like you.

A-ho!

Working with the Medicine

For our Shamanic Students: Ask for an Initiation
Just because the world is collectively going through an Initiation, there is no reason why you can't ask your Guide(s) for another!

Is there an aspect of your life that you wish to work or be tested on? Do you wish to grow in a certain direction in your life? Are you seeking something, perhaps an answer or you wish to work more closely with your Soul or...pretty much anything?

Remember Dear Ones, all you need to do is ask!

So, ask your Guides for an Initiation. However, you need to really know why you want one. This isn't a flippant, "Hey, this ought to keep me busy for a while" kind of things.

So when you are ready to step it up, ask.

Words from the Sacred Elder

Grandfather and I sat at the edge of our River. I told him of the Global Initiation.

He looked out towards the sunset, “This is a Good Thing. It shows that mankind is moving forward. It shows that man has a chance to learn something here. It tells me that there is much Wisdom to be had...if man chooses to listen!”

I nodded.

“You see, my son, the Circle of Life, is designed to move. Many people from your world...their Wheel is thin, and it goes like an arrow. But it is not a good arrow...it is an arrow with a singular aim...and success is usually the target.”

Once again, I nodded. Golden light flickered upon the quiet River.

“There is much to Life. Perhaps people will grasp this and point their arrows in a new direction.”

I nodded, and we sat still for a while.

I turned towards his majestic profile, “Grandfather, is this how the People lived during the days when the White men came?”

“Our arrows were only put to use when death came. Our arrows were there to survive.”

“Many people have such arrows today.”

“I pray, Grandson, that they can put their arrows back in their quiver and instead, consider where they place their feet.”

I looked across the way to the band of teepees to our right. I saw the People. I heard the sound of children’s laughter. I saw the smoke rising from the fires for the evening meal. I saw the men moving around after their day of hunting.

“Yes Grandfather. I pray for this too.”

“Come me, son, let us return home. Your Grandmother looks forward to seeing you. Will you stay with us?”

“Of course, Grandfather. Of course.”

And so we walked together, our aim true along a path so wide, one without any arrows.

Blessings moving forward…

A-ho Great Spirit! A-ho!

Sacred One! I humbly ask that you look after all of my relations in this time of challenges.

I Bless all my Relations, especially those of the two legged variety, that they learn from all that is going on the World.

I Bless them for realizing that we are all connected.

I Bless them for realizing that to stand and remain silent has its place. And yet, there are times when we must stand tall and allow the pain of our heart and the injustice that we witness to come out and be heard.

I Bless the many Dear Ones who have come to my doorstep over the years...may you carry theses teachings in your heart and share them with Love to your children and to others who will benefit.

I Bless you for BEing instruments of Change in a World that so desperately needs the Wisdom of our Ancestors.

I Bless the Souls of Humanity that have perished during these trying times. You are pioneers and I honor that. Travel well Dear Ones!

And I Bless all of us who have emerged on the other-side of this Initiation. I Bless you for Evolving and for doing so in a Good Way.

And I Bless the Earth Mother for loving us, even though we mistreat her. I carry my Love for you deep within my 7th Direction, Dear One.

And I Bless us all for Living on for another day.

A-ho!
